WITNESSES HAVE A ROW.

The case of P. N. Garff vs J. R. Allen, the trial of which began before Judge Cherry, without a jury, Monday, was concluded last evening, the court finding in favor of plaintiff and assessing his damages at $25. The action was to recover $100 for the alleged unlawful detention of eight head of neat cattle. There were about thirty witnesses—fifteen on either side—in the siderable ill-feeling, which nearly culminated in a fight yesterday afternoon between William Cox and B. R. Garff, son of the plaintiff. The former had been on the witness stand for the defense, and came out from the court room into the corridor where he met young Garff and others Some slighting remark is said to have been made by one of the crowd regarding Cox's testimony. The latter took it up, when Garff remarked that Cox did not tell the truth in every particular. "You're a G— d— liar," Cox. ticular. "You're a G-d-liar," Cox-is reported to have replied. More words followed, and Cox offered to "lick" Garff. The latter said he didn't to fight in such close proximity to the city and county jails, but if Cox

TIMBER CASES DECIDED.

Government Wins Against the Rio Grande Western and Beaver Co-op.

The government obtained two verdicts yesterday in the United States court. They were timber-cutting cases, the first one being against the Beaver Co.op., in which the government asked for damages in the sum of $614.90. The case was begun Monday, and the verdict gave the plaintiff $48.50 and costs.

The case of the United States vs. the Rio Grande Western Rallway for llegally cutting 2,222 ties of the value of $888, occupied the afternoon. Juros A. C. Morris was late in appearing in the court room, and was fined $10 by Judge Marshall. There were only ten men on the jury which tried this case, it being agreed by Messrs. Harkness and Van Cott for the defense, and Messrs. Whittemore and Cherrington or the government, to go to trial with ut ten men, in order to save time The jury consisted of the following: J. K. Gillespie, A. W. Caine, Jr., Samuel C. Ravey, R. F. Aveson, A. C. Morris, Jeremiah Willey, C. H. Wilson, J. O. Wall, Eli H. Pierce, and Charles W. Sympos

A number of witnesses were examined the prosecution, but the defense did not introduce any testimony, and after a brief consultation the jury reatter a brief consultation the jury re-turned a verdict of $209.75 and costs in favor of the government, that amount bein give value of about 600 ties deliv-ered at Mount Pleasant. No verdict was returned for the remaining 1,600 ties, the evidence connecting them with the defendant being deemed insufficient.
